

DR FELICITY ADAMS

Breast Surgery, Endocrine Surgery,
General Surgery
BBIOMED SC, MBBS, FRACS

Dr Felicity Adams has been visiting the Gympie and Sunshine Coast Regions for nearly 5 years now, running clinics on a fortnightly basis in her Gympie rooms. Dr Adams offers both private and public clinics, and performs the majority at the Noosa Private hospital. Dr Adams plans to provide both regions a high level of service and care for many years to come with her General Surgery, Breast and Endocrine Specialities.

Dr Felicity Adams completed her education in Brisbane, graduating with a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery from The University of Queensland in 2005. After graduating she undertook surgical specialty training based at the Princess Alexandra Hospital in Brisbane, and also working at various locations around South East Queensland, including two years on the Sunshine Coast. During this time Felicity developed her knowledge of a broad range of general surgery interventions and developed skills in laparoscopic surgery.

In 2014 Dr Adams obtained a fellowship in General Surgery from the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons. Following this she undertook a further year of subspecialty training in Breast and Endocrine surgery at the Princess Alexandra Hospital. During this fellowship year she further developed her skills in all aspects of breast surgery, as well as surgery of the thyroid, minimally invasive parathyroidectomy and laparoscopic adrenalectomy. She is a member of Australian and New Zealand Endocrine Surgeons, Australasian Society for Breast Disease as well as General Surgeons Australia.

Dr Adams is qualified in all areas of general surgery. She maintains an interest in oncoplastic breast surgery, having obtained certification in Level 1 and Level 2 oncoplastic procedures with BreastSurg ANZ. Dr Adams is accredited for colonoscopy and endoscopy with the Conjoint Committee for Recognition of Training in Gastrointestinal Endoscopy. She is a lecturer for the University of Queensland School of Medicine and frequently attends national and international surgical meetings and courses. As a modern surgeon she is up to date with current best surgical practice. Dr Adams is involved with the Medical Advisory Committee at Noosa Hospital where she acts as the representative for the Department of Surgery.

Dr Adams would like to thank all the Gympie GP's and medical practices that have supported her throughout the last 5 years. Dr Adams and the Gympie Specialist Clinic will be offering GP Information nights and GP visits in the near future, and look forward to seeing everyone at these meetings.
